Job Openings: Choral Scholars @ Calvin Presbyterian Church

The Choral Scholar program at Calvin Presbyterian Church offers a unique experience for MUSIC EDUCATION STUDENTS to serve not only as choral SECTION LEADER, but also offers consistent and valuable CONDUCTING opportunities, guidance and feedback not often available to undergraduate students in a supportive, joyful and engaging environment.

WHO SHOULD APPLY: MUSIC EDUCATION students at any point in their degree.
Specifically seeking: soprano, tenor and bass voices.

WHO is HIRING: Calvin Presbyterian Church (Long Lake, MN) is a church within the Presbyterian Church (USA). Set in idyllic Long Lake, MN the sanctuary is ideal for choral and chamber music, and the congregation is open, supportive and receptive to music of all genres and musicians of all ilks.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Weekly rehearsals (Wednesdays, 7-8:30p),
Weekly services (Sunday, 9:30a call / 10a Worship)

Musical preparation as section leader, ability to sing independently, solo opportunities are available, but not mandatory.

Monthly opportunities to conduct: rehearsals, services, handbell choir.

Church Holidays are strongly encouraged, but scheduling is flexible to accommodate scholar's travel and family obligations (especially Christmas).

COMPENSATION: A monthly stipend of $240 is allocated to Choral Scholars. This payment is untaxed, and considered a scholarship for degree-seeking students.

Additional compensations for Holidays, extra services, etc

HOW TO APPLY: Send a letter of inquiry, along with a resume to Director of Music Mark Bilyeu (mark.bilyeu@gmail.com). In-person interviews will include singing a solo, preparing a short excerpt and a brief interview.

DEADLINE TO APPLY: August 31st, 2018
